By accepting this order, the supplier agrees to the "Special Terms and Conditions Aviation".

- (1) Each shipment must be accompanied by the relevant certificates.
- (2) The supplier confirms that Schneider CNC-Technik, its customers and competent authorities have access to the production site, the production/ or quality-relevant documentation at any time for a verification of work- or product quality.
This right of access is limited to the products and documents concerning the products or contracts of Schneider CNC-Technik.
- (3) All requirements of purchase also apply to suppliers or subcontractors.
- (4) The supplier immediately notifies unexpected deviations, non-compliance, changes to the product and / or process, change of supplier, and / or change of production site, to Schneider CNC-Technik. Schneider CNC-Technik reserves the right to authorize such changes or occurrences before the work may be continued.
- (5) The supplier confirms to take suitable corrective measures if Schneider CNC-Technik submits complaints or defect reports to him.
- (6) All records (documents) relating to the manufacture, inspection or testing of the products are archived for a minimum of 10 years.
- (7) The Supplier will comply with all "Global (comprehensive) Ethics Principles of the Aerospace and Defense Industry", both from the Aerospace Industries Association of America (AIA) and the AeroSpace and Defense Industries Association of Europe (ASD), visible on the following: <http://asd-europe.org/sectors-policies/business-ethics>
